

Personal Information
Given Name	Byung Joo	Surname	Min
Organization	Ulsan National Institute of Science and Technology
Position	Professor	Nationality	Korea
Field of Expertise	The Research Trend of Nuclear Energy
Title of Presentation	Policy Making for Science & Technology
Education
She received a Bachelor's and Master's degrees in physics from Ewha Women University in Korea, and received a Ph.D. in nuclear physics from Kyushu University in Japan.
Professional Experience
Byung Joo Min worked as a member of the Republic of Korea National Assembly from May 2012 to May 2016, and she contributed to the National Research and Development, and Policy making of Science. After returning to Korea, she worked for the Korea Atomic Energy Research Institute (KAERI) as a chief researcher in CANDU reactor fuel design for 23 years. Especially she served as a director of Nuclear Training & Education Center. She also served as a president of Korea Women in Science & Engineering (KWSE) and tried to upgrade the status of women scientists. She currently lectures on The Research Trend of Nuclear Energy as a visiting professor at UNIST(Ulsan National Institute and Technology). She is interested in improving the welfare and protecting the rights of women scientists.				